Government of India
Ministry of Finance
(Department of Expenditure)

New Delhi, the 25th January, 1980.

OFFICE MEMORANDUM

Subject:- Calculation of monthly contributions towards cost of pension payable during foreign service.

In accordance with the instructions contained in this Ministry's OM No.F.1(14)-E.III(B)/69, dated the 19th July, 1969, the monthly contributions towards cost of pension payable during active period of foreign service is to be calculated on the maximum of the scale of pay of the post plus Dearness Pay appropriate to such maximum.

2. Consequent on the issue of this Ministry's O.M. No.19(4)-EV/79, dated the 25th May, 1979, a doubt arises as to whether the portion of Dearness Allowance treated as pay for the purpose of retirement benefits would also be taken into account for the purpose of calculating the rate of pension contribution payable for the period of foreign service. The President is pleased to decide that pension contributions payable in respect of a Government servant during the active period of his foreign service should be based on the maximum of the pay as defined in Rule 9(21) of the Fundamental Rules plus Dearness Pay appropriate to such maximum as indicated in this Ministry's OM dated 25.5.79 in respect of the post held by him at the time of his proceeding on foreign service or to which he may receive proforma promotion while on foreign service.

3. These orders will apply to cases of foreign service commencing after the date of their issue. In respect of past cases, these orders will be applicable in the event of any further extension of the present term of foreign service from the date of such extension; or where the deputation was for an unspecified period, after one year from the date of issue of these orders.

4. In so far as the employees of the Indian Audit & Accounts Department are concerned, these orders have been issued in consultation with the Comptroller & Auditor General of India.
